MORRIS PARK RACE TRACK. May 24.—The sensation of the afternoon at Westchester was the victory of W. B. Fasig in the race for the Amateur Cup. As far back as Bennings G. B. Sherman, the owner of W. B. Fasig.

Sherman, the owner of W. B. Fasig. Sherman, the owner of W. B. Fasig, declared that he had only one race in view for his horse and that was the Amateur Cup. His friends laughed at hard time winning around Washington. Nevertheless Fasig was steadily preparing for the Amateur Cup and this af-ternoon it was Mr. Sherman who laughed. He had made good his boast and Fasig had won at odds of 60 to 1. The chances are that Fasig was lucky for it looked as if Dapple Gold or Kilo be kidding one another and waiting for with a rush, and Messrs. Lewis and placed first, and the added starter. The Southerner, secured the place. Redfern was criticised severely for making so much use of Dolly Spanker, but his mount was very rank, and he was forced to go to the front.

The attendance was again a feature of the day, for the crowd on hand was as large as an ordinary Saturday gathering last season. At least 10,000 people saw the races run. The weather was fine and the track fast.

FIFTH RACE—Four and one-half furlongs.—Won by Braden, 8 to 5; Gay half was second:

SIXTH RACE—Three-quarters of a mile.—Won by King Elisworth. 11 to 5 and even; Radium. 8 to 5 for place, was second: Algonquin, 4 to 1, third. Time-1.201-2.

LATONIA FINISHES.

Favorites Beaten.

The first was a very open race so far as betting was concerned, but the talent finally settled on Staker as the good thing, hearing that he had worked fast. Phaser and Lady Prudence, who were coupled, also had backing. Miss Eugenie, ridden by a little boy named Fisher, rushed to the front, followed by Ogontz and Niskayuna. Miss Eugenie held her lead into the stretch, where Ogontz closed and took the lead, holding it to the last sixteenth, where Niskayuna forged to the front and won by three lengths from Ogontz, who beat Tom Lawson a head for the place.

Talent Gets a Shock.

Talent Gets a Shock. Consuelo II., a 12-to-1 shot, gave the talent a shock by breezing in an easy winner by four lengths in the second-race. She was not well thought of before the race, and she went up in the betting from 8 to 1 to 12 to 1. She was away well and made the running with Esterre and Vassar Girl, the former being the hot favorite. At the dip it was seen that it was all over, for Consuelo II. was drawing away with long, sweeping strides. She won by four lengths in easy fashion. Esterre and Vassar Girl tired badly and Raime. Shot out of the bunch in the last few strides and beat Fleur De Marie a length and a half for the place.

The race for the Amateur Cup was the third on the bard, and the wise people selected Girdle, ridden by Ambrose Clark, as the probable winner. Dapple Gold, ridden by Mr. Velentine, and Kilogram, ridden by Mr. Lewis, were well played. The race furnished a great surprise. W. B. Fasig, a 60 to 1 shot, sathered up the money. Dapple Gold, Girdle and Kilogram were the pacemakers to the turn, where Girdle dropped out of it. The other two kept on in front until they reached the stretch, where Dapple Gold stopped. Kilogram then looked to hold the race safe, but W. B. Fasig shot out of the bunch and, nalling Kilogram in the last sixteenth, won by four lengths. Kilogram was a length and a haif in front of Dapple Gold.

Bugenia Burch Disqualified. 60 to 1 Shot. .

Bugenia Burch Disqualified. Dolly Spanker was a red bot favorite in the Jockey Club Weight for Age race. Robin Hood and Major Dainger-field, coupled, was the second, choice. Eugenia Burch was well played. The mare won the race, but was disqualified for fouling on the first turn. Cormack was crowded over on Robin Hood, who in turn was forced against Major Daingsriield, sonding the latter to his knees. Eugenia Burch then went on and made the running to the turn, where Dolly Spanker passed her and showed the way to the stretch. There the mare again overhauled her and oams away, whaning cleverly by a length from Dolly Spanker, who was im length from Dolly Spanker. Who was im length from Edy Spanker. Who was im length from Edy Spanker. Who was im length without much delay and placed Dolly Spanker first.

ed in the various raids.

As the prisoners who were taken in the raid at No. 44 Broad street were leaving Centre Street Court this afternoon, after being discharged for lack of evidence, they were surrounded by a of evidence, they were surrounded by a horde of county detectives, who served them with subpoenas. The subpoenas command them to appear before the Grand Jury on May 25 and give testimony in the case of the State against John Doe. This is contrary to the stand taken by the District-Attorney last night, when he said that it was not his intention to raid places and then compel the prisoners to testify against each other under the provisions of his Dowling Witness bill.

Will Attend to Brooklyn Now.

Confident that he has dealt the poolrooms of Manhattan a death blow, Commissioner MeAdoo will now move upon Brooklyn. He announces that there will be no more raids in this borough, that patrolmen will be removed from in front of suspected places and that he will depend upon the Western Union and the New York Telephone Company to keep the pool-rooms smothered by refusing to let them have wires,
All of this was incorporated in a formal statement made by Commissioner McAdoo this afternoon in response to queries as to what he had to say about District-Attorney Jarome's charge that his raids on alleged pool-rooms without warrants or evidence are illegal. He said he had no reply to make to the LONDON, May 24.-It is almost certain that one of the bloodiest battle of modern times is being fought at Port Arthur. Reports of a desperat final struggle for the possession of the stronghold is on.

Despatches have been received from Russian sources saying that th Japanese have been practically exterminated in a whirlwind rush on the Port Arthur fortifications.

JAP LEGATION GETS NO NEWS.

Nothing has been heard at the Japanese Legation here, which is generally the medium through which the Tokio Government gives out news o battles, of the attack upon Port Arthur, which is not remarkable because the Japanese line of communication from Liaotung Peninsula is not wel established. 'The Russians, on the other hand, have been sending message from Port Arthur ever since the Japanese landed and cut the telegraph

The Standard has a despatch from one of its correspondents in Man churia saying that the Russians in Port Arthur had made plans to cut thel way to the north through the Japanese line that has been established across he peninsula. If such a determination was reached by the Russians it in dicates that the Japanese force on Liaotung Peninsula is not as strong as
